From Sandra Burr's powerful narration portrays the Baxter family in the best and the worst of circumstances as the Redemption series comes to an end. Burr's characterizations are layered with such genuine emotion and depth that they give form and face to each character. From Elizabeth's battle with cancer to daughter Ashley's wedding to the bittersweet meeting of Elizabeth and movie star Dayne Matthews, the story depicts the foundation of it all--the love and devotion of John and Elizabeth for each other. Burr captures each character's intimate struggles, joys, and dependence on God to carry them through. This memorable story and Burr's excellent narrative skills will linger long in the listener's memory.
