Description:

Review "A unique book . . . May easily become a military classic."

"Reality and intensity are the chief watchwords of this unique and highly personal memoir."

"The human side of submarine warfare . . . Exciting reading."

"Bill Ruhe and I were both caught in the early crucible of World War II, both of us in submarines. Here is how it felt. I endorse every word."

From the Publisher The journal from eight action-filled patrols in the South Pacific
